2011 RULES & REGULATIONS

During the off-season (defined as the months of January, February, May, June, July, August, September, November & December), members may book any available starting times one week in advance. During peak season (defined as the months of March, April & October), members may book starting times 48 hours in advance. Starting times may be reserved by calling central reservations at 843-626-1658, reserving in person at the course.

Membership Dues are paid in advance annually and are non-refundable. Memberships expire at the end of the calendar year, December 31.

Members are entitled to a reduced cart fee rate. Carts are required, however walking is permitted for any available starting time after 3:00 PM. Any variation to this policy is left to the discretion of the club.

Membership cards are issued to all members in good standing. Membership cards are non-transferable. Member privileges may be revoked or suspended at the discretion of the club for non-compliance of the rules and regulations or in the event of any member conduct that is deemed inappropriate or disruptive.

Membership cards must be present at check-in in order to receive the member golf and cart rate.

Members may have guest play for the accompanied guest of member rate in effect at the time of play. Members must accompany their guest in order to qualify for the guest of member rate. Members may book tee times with no restrictions if they bring an equivalent number of paying guests to member ratio. The club reserves the right to limit the number of guests that a member may bring.

Any member that fails to show up for, or properly cancel their starting time will be charged the full value of the starting time on their member account. Any member that books times in advance for themselves and guests and fails to show up with the appropriate number of guests will be charged the full value of the starting time(s) that they booked.

Members are not eligible for any Classic Golf Group promotions other than those that are specifically identified as being for Classic Golf Group members.

Members receive a discount on non-sale soft goods in the golf shop and a discount in the grille. Members must present their member cards in order to receive the discount.

Golf Shop Discount: 20%

Grille Discount: 10%

2011 ACCOMPANIED GUEST OF MEMBER RATES
